

Blessed In Aging

~Esther Mary Walker

Blessed are they who understand My faltering step and shaking hand Blessed, who know my ears today Must strain to hear the things they say.

Blessed are those who seem to know My eyes are dim and my mind is slow Blessed are those who look away When I spilled tea that weary day.

Blessed are they who, with cheery smile Stopped to chat for a little while Blessed are they who know the way To bring back memories of yesterday.

Blessed are those who never say "You've told that story twice today" Blessed are they who make it known That I am loved, respected and not alone.

And blessed are they who will ease the days Of my journey home, in loving ways.
